Subject: Microsoft Settlement

To whom it may concern:

The proposed settlement is hopelessly flawed and should be re-written. I've read the settlement proposed by the dissenting states and it is what the Proposed Final Judgement should have been.

The weakness of the PFJ and Microsoft's disregard for the law may be clearly seen in the release of Windows XP with it's host of anti-competitive features (e.g. MyMusic, Passport, and even remote control).

As a concerned citizen responding under the Tunney Act, I strongly oppose any settlement, including the Proposed Final Judgement, that does not completely prohibit Microsoft's anti-competitive practices.
